

Evaluating skills

Complete the boxes relevant to the activity you have carried out.

In 50-100 words say what scientific skills and knowledge you used and how effectively you used them.

In 50-100 words describe how you worked as a team and give examples of how you supported others in your group or were supported by them. What is the advantage of working in a team?

In 50-100 words describe how the group managed its time and workload.

In 50-100 words describe what you learned about resources and budget management.

In 50-100 words describe the forms of communication you used and how effective you think they were.